Monica Youn, Senior Counsel
Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law

Monica Youn directs the Brennan Center's campaign finance reform project, as well as working on other means of achieving and protecting broader participation in the political process. She was previously in private practice, and also served as law clerk to Judge John T. Noonan, Jr. in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Ms. Youn received her J.D. from Yale Law School, her M. Phil from Oxford University, where she was a Rhodes Scholar, and her B.A. from Princeton University. She has litigated campaign finance and election law issues in state and federal courts throughout the nation, and was co-lead counsel for Intervenor-Defendants in McComish v. Bennett, the public financing case currently pending in the Supreme Court. She is the editor of Money, Politics, and the Constitution: Beyond Citizens United (forthcoming Century Foundation Press 2011) and regularly appears in the national media as an expert on campaign finance issues.
